Black History Month

Tuesday February 6, 2024

February is Black History Month. We honour Black Canadians who have helped build the Canada we know today. Their passion, talent and vision has transformed and strengthened every facet of our society. They are heroes and trailblazers. They have inspired generations of Canadians. Black History Month also reminds us of the inequity and barriers many continue to face, from anti-Black racism and discrimination to a lack of opportunity and resources. Each day for the month of February, we will celebrate the many achievements and contributions of Black Canadians on the announcements, in our classrooms, and in activities planned throughout the school.

Students who are taking Peer Tutoring Semester 2 with Ms. Fairbarn, our class will be meeting during lunch for the first week in room 104. Please see check D2L and your email for more information.
